

TOLERANCE MEANS BEING ABLE TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE WHO DON'T BELIEVE OR ACT LIKE YOU DO.

Write down three ways you showed tolerance by respecting another's beliefs even though you didn't agree with them; first, at the studio, then, at school or work, and at home:

At the studio: _____

At school or work: _____

At home: _____

What is the difference between tolerance and moral neutrality?

How are people's actions toward you affected by your tolerance of them?

List five reasons you should show tolerance toward others:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

"Be humble, and gentle, and patient, showing tolerance toward one another in love."

- Ephesians 4:2

Shepherd-Warrior Martial Arts

1212 Grand Ave, Ste. 11
Billings, MT 59102

(406) 591-2864

www.shepherdwariormartialarts.com